

In this Issue

- 15 ATV AT 5000 FEET: Robert VK7ZOS takes us to the top of Tasmania's highest mountain.
- 19 GUIDE TO VHF PROPAGATION: An in-depth look at how signals propagate on the VHF bands.
- 29 DUAL CHANNEL TELEVISION: The Departmental Engineering Report and other important information.
- 37 MELLISH REEF . . . VK9MR: All the latest details of our biggest DXpedition of 1984!
- 40 THE RADIO INSPECTORS: An inside look at the Department of Communications.
- 45 SCANNING FOR THE VFO-230: A welcome modification which also suits other external VFOs.
- 48 ANOTHER ARA HAMWORD: Something to keep you entertained when the bands are 'dead'.
- 56 THE CHARTREUSE PANELS: A light-hearted story adapted for ARA by VK3KAF.

Regular Features

- 5 —TRAFFIC: The hot news department
- 7 —YL FORUM: when everything goes wrong!!
- 8 —NEWSDESK: New products and information
- 49 —WORK THE WORLD: Some unique local awards
- 53 —CONTEST CALENDAR: Contest results and rules
- 55 —VHF/UHF SCATTER: News from above 50 MHz
- 59 —DX NOTES: News and comment on current DX
- 64 —PROPAGATION REVIEW: A close look at recent band conditions
- 66 —PROPAGATION FORECASTER: November predictions from the IPS
- 68 —SHORTWAVE LISTENING: News for the SWL by Peter Bunn
- 71 —CLASSIFIEDS: Australia's biggest permanent hamfest

Cover: DOC's Melbourne monitoring station, a radio inspector's vehicle and its contents. Photos by Peter Smith.