

Special Features

- 12 GIVEAWAY REVIEW — ICOM IC-781: It wouldn't be much good winning a rig if the darned thing was a lemon, would it? Neil Duncan tells us what it's like having an IC-781 in the shack.
- 24 BOOK REVIEWS: We look at a few more books of interest to the amateur radio operator.
- 26 NEPTUNE — A CLOSE ENCOUNTER: Paul Butler, VK3DBP, describes the fly-by of planet Neptune by our amazing emissary Voyager II.
- 34 COMETITION! WIN THE RADIO OF THE DECADE: A chance like this comes only once in a lifetime. You could be the winner...
- 38 EQUIPMENT REVIEW — Yaesu FT-767 & FL-7000: Yaesu calls this pair 'the brains and the brawn'. We decided to find out why. Here's part one of our in-depth review.
- 44 THE ARA Mk II BUILDING BLOCKS: John Day, VK3ZJF, presents part two of our six metre transverter project. The DX is coming...

- 4 — QSP: Editor Chris Edmondson, VK3YID, drools and dreams about the IC-781 — and looks at other things as well.

- 65 — SUBSCRIBE: Here's how...
- 66 — ADVERTISE FREE! in the ARA classifieds.
- 66 — ADVERTISERS' INDEX

Cover: We told our cover artist to "make it different" — so he did. How better to launch the biggest radio magazine contest ever? You won't need to be an Einstein to work out that Amateur Radio Action will soon be needing a far bigger mail box — just to hold all the entries in the IC-781 giveaway. Read our glowing report of this fabulous transceiver — then start collecting those coupons! You never know...

Above: A $20,000 collection. The Icom IC-781 is at the bottom of the picture, the new Icom IC-R9000 receiver above it, and the large Yaesu FT-767GX on the top. Looks kinda small in this company, doesn't it... Keep watching Amateur Radio Action for a full review of the new IC-R9000 very soon. You can even watch TV on the screen!

Next issue out October 31. Classifieds deadline 13 October.
